

Taking the fight against cancer to the next level

RamStrength, the Lubick Foundation's non-profit initiative, continues to grow and evolve. Headed by Executive Director, Michelle Lubick Boyle, the team is thriving and continues to grow as an established 501(c)3. Taking the fight against cancer to the next level, they are enabling increasing support for local cancer survivors in need by providing direct financial assistance for basic needs, scholarships, programs and services. When cancer struck the Lubick family, they fought back. Born out of Michelle's desire to help and support her brother, Marc, when he was battling a rare form of cancer, she and Tasha Marchant founded RamStrength in 2007 with incredible community support. Since then, the momentum has continued to grow, sparking successful events and fundraisers, increased volunteer support, and raising over $3 Million since its inception! RamStrength is managed by the Lubick Foundation, with members of the Lubick family supporting the everyday efforts of the organization.

RamStrength organizes fundraisers and participates in local community events to raise awareness for cancer and the need to help our friends and neighbors who are going through treatments. Some of the biggest fundraising events hosted by RamStrength include: Spread the Love – Valentines Event, Kickin’ Cancer – CSU Football Game Day and Tailgate, EaglesStrength game with the Colorado Eagles and an Annual Golf Tournament and Benefit with C.B. & Potts.

Community Partnerships

Without these valuable partnerships established throughout the community, RamStrength would not be able to reach the increasing number of cancer patients with immediate financial needs.
